 - Free cash flow before acquisitions: around €250 million

1.1 FUCHS at a glance

“In the first nine months of the current year, FUCHS achieved an EBIT of €334 million. Compared to the previous year, we improved our results by 7% despite the currently challenging market environment. All three world regions contributed to this positive development with earnings increases. In the Asia-Pacific region, the recovery of our China business continued. The North and South America region impressed with strong EBIT growth of around 15%, and the EMEA region (Europe, Middle East, Africa) benefited from earnings growth in all sub-regions. Sales revenues, impacted by currency effects, are slightly below the previous year at €2,666 million.

We are pleased to have completed the closing for the acquisition of the LUBCON Group in July. The high-quality products are an excellent addition to our portfolio. Furthermore, we are pleased to have celebrated the opening of the production plant for electrolyte solutions in Kaiserslautern together with E-Lyte Innovations GmbH in September. With an annual production capacity of up to 20,000 tons of electrolyte, the plant is designed for the manufacture of high-performance electrolytes for lithium-ion batteries, sodium-ion batteries, and super-capacitors.

Our global positioning and diversified product and customer portfolio enable us to continue our profitable growth path despite the challenging economic environment. Earnings per share see double-digit growth, supported by the completed share buyback. We confirm our outlook for the full year with an EBIT of around €430 million and a free cash flow before acquisitions of around €250 million.”

1.2 Business development in the first nine months of 2024

Development of sales revenues in the Group

Development of sales revenues in the Group

(in € million)

Sales revenues in the Group slightly below previous year at €2,666 million (2,698) due to currency effects

- Good business development compensates for price adjustments
- Negative currency effects, primarily from the Asia-Pacific region and South America, total €35 million

1.2 Business development in the first nine months of 2024

Development of sales revenues by regions/segments

Europe, Middle East, Africa (EMEA)

(in € million)

EMEA sales revenues of €1,544 million (1,566) down €22 million or 1% on the previous year due to price factors

- Decline in organic sales revenues by 2% due to price adjustments in almost all companies; overall moderate business growth
- External growth of €6 million through the LUBCON Group, acquired at the end of July
- Positive currency effects from Poland and the UK offset negative effects from South Africa and other Eastern European countries

Asia-Pacific

(in € million)

Asia-Pacific sales revenues of €739 million (738) remain at previous year's level; negative currency effects offset organic growth

- Organic growth of around 3% due to positive business development
- Growth especially from Australia and China; India also continuing its upward trend
- All currencies in the region under pressure; negative effects of 3% burden sales revenues by €18 million

North and South America

(in € million)

North and South America down 2% or €12 million on the previous year with sales of €511 million (523) due to high negative currency effects

- High price increases in South America as a result of hyperinflation in Argentina are offset by price adjustments in North America
- High negative currency effects of €20 million, in particular due to the decline of the Argentinian peso; however, the US dollar and Brazilian real also had a negative impact

- Only minor currency effects, which balanced out within the region

Asia-Pacific with EBIT of €87 million (80) €7 million or 9% above previous year

- Improvement in earnings due to continued positive development in China
- Negative currency effects from all countries

North and South America with strong EBIT growth of around 15% or €9 million to €71 million (62)

- High earnings growth from North American specialty business; Mexico also reports significant improvement
- Negative exchange rate effects from South America

1.3 Employees

1.4 Outlook

1.5 Events after the reporting period

1.3 Employees

The global workforce grows by 431 employees compared to September 30, 2023, and by 420 compared to December 31, 2023, to a total of 6,692 (6,261) employees by the end of the third quarter.

The increase is primarily due to the integration of previously outsourced activities in the area of logistics, newly acquired Chemical Process Management projects and the acquisition of the LUBCON Group with 211 employees.

1.4 Outlook

In its latest outlook from October, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) confirmed its forecast for global economic growth made in July, which predicts a growth rate of 3.2% for both the current and the coming year. However, for Germany the IMF revises its expectations downward compared to the July forecast. For the current year, growth is now expected to be 0% (previously expected: 0.2%). For 2025, growth is now projected to be 0.8% (previously expected: 1.3%).

FUCHS expects the economic environment to remain challenging for the remaining three months of the financial year, but confirms the existing forecast for the full year 2024:

- Sales: around €3.6 billion
- EBIT: around €430 million
- FVA: around €240 million
- Free cash flow before acquisitions: around €250 million

Our global track record and solid financial base remain robust, and FUCHS continues to focus on profitable growth and the implementation of FUCHS2025.

1.5 Events after the reporting period

On October 16, 2024, FUCHS SE announced the cancellation of its own shares for the purpose of reducing its share capital. After the completion of the cancellation and capital reduction, the share capital of FUCHS SE will amount to €131 million (previously €139 million) and will be divided into 65.5 million (previously 69.5 million) registered preference shares (no-par value shares) and 65.5 million (previously 69.5 million) registered ordinary shares (no-par value shares), with a proportional amount of the share capital attributable to each share of €1.00 (previously €1.00).
