- Electrification of cars will lead to new applications and higher requirements for existing applications
- Regardless of the powertrain type, every car needs a variety of other lubricant applications
- Combustion engines will face further efficiency improvements leading to higher requirements of existing lubricants (e.g. higher protection against deposits for turbocharged engines, higher heat and ageing stability for more compact engines)
- Hybrid cars with efficient combustion engines will place complex requirements for existing applications but also create new demand for new applications
- EVs will place whole new demand on gear oils, coolants, greases (e.g. contact with electrical currents and electromagnetic fields, higher heat emission, reduction gears with less gear steps and higher input speeds)
- FUCHS is used to quickly adapting to new market demands and is working on concrete methods to meet the challenges of the future mobility
