

Welcome to the FUCHS Group, the world's number one independent manufacturer of lubricants and related specialties. As a global company with roots in Germany, we expand the possibilities of whole industries, such as the automotive and aerospace sectors. Almost 6,000 employees look closer, dig deeper and think further to create innovations and develop markets. This is what drives and connects us. We encourage our employees to expand their potential and grow together with us. Explore your specialties by joining us as a Purchasing Specialist

PURCHASING SPECIALIST HANLEY, STOKE-ON-TRENT

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Daily management of raw material and packaging purchase orders to meet customer and manufacturing requirements.
- Analysis and interpretation of MRP information in order to react to changes in demand.
- Daily communication with production staff, suppliers, to ensure timely delivery of critical raw materials.
- Communication of critical supplier related information to customer facing staff
- Updating purchasing and supplier information records
- Analysis of vendor performance, including tracking of non-conforming material deliveries
- Base Oil Pricing, Quotas, and Forecasting.
- Working closely with Commercial Divisional Heads and R&D
- Ensuring quality supply and avoiding supplier dependence
- Monitoring Base Oil Usage Monthly/Yearly
- New Supplier Approvals
- Price List maintenance

QUALIFICATIONS WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Candidates should be CIPS qualified with experience in a manufacturing environment.
- SAP experience would be advantageous.

BENEFITS

- Competitive Salary, Annual Bonus + additional benefits (including holiday entitlement above statutory, pension scheme, employee assistance programme, free on-site parking, discounted private medical cover, training opportunities and a supportive working environment)

Please send your up-to-date application document to: Susanne McClurg, HR Executive, susanne.mcclurg@fuchs.com.

Explore your specialties. Expand your possibilities.
<https://www.fuchs.com/uk/en/careers/jobs-at-fuchs/>

